Speaking Topics

1. Entrepreneurial Mindset

What investors look for in start ups. For are the key drivers that make an investor say yes.

2. Portfolio allocation: investing in the next unicorn

In today's investment landscape which is characterized by high fee funds and no fee bonds, there is a sector that deserves attention.

3. Pivot: the importance of knowing when to stay the course

Entrepreneurs often fall in love with their baby to the point of not seeing what is really needed. A fresh perspective.

4. Investing in the entrepreneur and the team

A decent idea executed by a stellar team has a much higher chance of success than an excellent idea executed by a mediocre team.
